

South East Migration Partnership ESOL event: ESOL for young people
20th November 2019, 10.30am – 3.30pm Harlequin Theatre, Redhill

Aims for the day:

- To understand the current offer for 16 to 19 year olds
- To understand the current policy context of ESOL for young people
- To discuss the challenges of supporting young ESOL learners
- To discuss effective approaches to supporting young people with an ESOL need to access suitable provision and employment opportunities

10.30 – 10.45am Arrival

10.45 – 11am Welcome and introductions Roy Millard, Head of South East Strategic Partnership for Migration

11am – 11.10 Feedback from sub-regional meetings – the key messages Hazel Klenk, Researcher at L&W

11.10 – 11.30 ESOL for young people

- What is the offer? Alex Stevenson, Head of English, Maths and ESOL at L&W
- Policy context Sue Monk, DWP

11.30 – 12noon Challenges to supporting young ESOL learners – a guided discussion

Refreshments

12.10 – 12.30pm How to support young people with an ESOL need to access suitable provision – presentation of existing resources

- Kia Kelly-Hollin, Service Manager, Pathways to Independence UK (PTI UK)

12.30 – 1pm How to support young people with an ESOL need access work experience and employment opportunities

- Philips and the TENT initiative Hayley Johnson, Philips
- A short film by Brighton Table Tennis Club

Lunch

1.30 – 2.30pm 16-19 Provision – examples from the region of effective practice

- Katherine Doyle, Head of Department - MET & ESOL at East Surrey College and Tracy Andrews, Assistant Principal at John Ruskin College
- Carole Wilson-Frizzell, Head of School - ESOL, Inclusive Learning & Workability at Milton Keynes College
- Contributions and questions from the floor

2.30 – 3.15pm How to provide 16-19 provision – checklist co-creation workshop

3.15 – 3.30pm Summary and closing remarks Roy Millard Head of South East Strategic Partnership for Migration