

South East Migration Partnership ESOL webinar: Delivering ESOL online
16th July 2020, 11am – 12.30pm, Zoom

Joining details:

Zoom link: here

Dial-in: 0203 901 7895

Meeting ID: 820 9200 5886

Password: 793781

1. Introduction and welcome (overview of ESOL co-ordinator role) SESPM and L&W 10 mins
2. Policy input (Jennifer Akite, Home Office) 10 mins
3. Provider input: Current approaches to delivering ESOL online 40 mins
 - Alan Dunkley, Faculty Manager at Oxford City College
Teaching remotely during lockdown and plans for September
 - Cathy Merry, ESOL teacher, Refugees Welcome Crawley
Peer learners and volunteer interpreters
 - Svenja Powel, Canterbury Welcomes Refugees
Bespoke provision for women and young adults
4. Learner input 10 mins
5. Discussion and feedback (breakout rooms facilitated by L&W/SESPM) 20 mins
 - What have the challenges of delivering ESOL online during lockdown been?
 - Which resources have you used? Are there any resources that have worked particularly well?
 - What approaches have you used? Are there any approaches that have worked particularly well?
6. Close